BEGINNING TO BOOM!

The Herald Voting Contest Increasing in Interest—Contestants Racing at a Lively Pace.

Interest in The Herald's great voting contest is increasing and beginning to attract a good deal of attention. The number of votes cast during the week ending April 6, was 8,040, a larger number than were cast the first month. For a few weeks after the contest began less than half of the persons paying on subscription voted.

This week we add to our list of prizes a $65 sewing machine, fully guaranteed for five years. Full particulars next week. There will be about twenty prizes to be awarded at the close of the contest, if there are that many contestants. We have only ten on the list now. There should be at least twice that many.

Miss Ella Moravek of Canton, the popular young lady who is the west side candidate, continues in the lead with 11,775 votes. She won the first of the special prizes, a ten dollar due bill, for reaching the 8,000 mark first. She selected the store of B. E. Johnson, Hemingford.

Miss Attie Snow, who has formed a large circle of acquaintances through her work as money order clerk at the Alliance postoffice, is a close second to Miss Moravek, her total vote up to last evening being 11,600. She won the second special prize of a ten dollar due bill for reaching 10,000 first (the candidate reaching 8,000 first being barred) and selected the Horace Bogue store.

Miss Nell Acheson, third in the contest with 10,250, has not done much, if anything, in the interests of her candidacy, but she has a large number of friends who are determined to look after her interests.

Miss Gladys Boon is fourth in the race with an even 9,000 votes to her credit. Although residing in Alliance she is best known in the Bonner neighborhood and is receiving practically the entire vote of that vicinity.

The fifth contestant is Miss Jessie Geiger. She occupies a position in the central telephone office at Hemingford. She started well in the contest, but since the fire at Hemingford, which burned the telephone office, she has been at a disadvantage and has fallen back several places.

Miss Alma Rosenberger, sixth, and Miss Anna Dainton, seventh, are highly respected farmers' daughters, and probably have not as large a circle of acquaintances as some of the candidates living in town; but if they and their friends will get busy they will stand a good show of securing a couple of fine prizes, with a possibility of one of them getting the first prize.

The other candidates, Miss Theresa Morgan, Mrs. Mary A. Morrow and Mrs. Emma O'Bannon, have made no additions to their votes during the past week. We are sure that if they and their friends will make the proper effort they can soon be near the head of the list.

STANDING OF CONTESTANTS

Following is the standing of contestants for The Herald Piano, up to and including April 6:

Ella Moravek, Canton.....	11775
Attie Snow, Alliance.....	11600
Nell Acheson, Alliance.....	10250
Jessie Geiger, Hemingford.....	9350
Alma Rosenberger.....	6325
Gladys Boon, Alliance.....	9000
Anna Dainton, Alliance.....	5900
Theresa Morgan, Lakeside.....	5600
Mrs. Mary A. Morrow, Ros-enroll, Canada.....	5150
Mrs. Emma O'Bannon, Al-liance.....	5150

SPECIAL PRIZE FOR APRIL

The contestant receiving the largest number of votes cast by new subscribers in April will receive a ten dollar due bill on any store that she may select from the advertising columns of any number of the paper issued during the month. This is open to all candidates, and will have nothing to do with the final award of prizes. A new subscriber is one whose name was not on the subscription books April 1, but whose subscription is received at this office some-time during the month.

NEXT WEEK ANNOUNCEMENT

Next week we will make an announcement of additional prizes that will make the contest boom till its close next summer. Look for it.

START NOW

Those who have not yet entered the contest, but who have been thinking of doing so, should get in without further delay. You will not regret it if you become a candidate.

City Election

The annual city election passed off quietly Tuesday. There was no contest for any of the offices to be filled except one, City Treasurer. There were two candidates for this office, G. J. Burke and Glen G. Hampton. Mr. Burke winning by a majority of 40 votes out of a total of about 600. The officers elected without opposition were: F. W. Harris, Mayor; F. W. Irish, Clerk; Councilman, First Ward, C. A. Newberry; Councilman, Second Ward, E. M. Martin; Engineer, F. W. Hamblin; Members Board Education, J. A. Mallery, Fred H. Mollring.

A Progressive Insurance Firm.

The attention of our readers is called to the ad of Gray & Guthrie in this issue of The Herald. Mr. Gray has lived here for about ten years. From 1900 to 1906 he made the surrounding territory for a Grand Island firm, and in the last mentioned year, Mr. Guthrie coming here, they formed a partnership to do a general insurance business. They now write all kinds of insurance and canvass the entire northwestern part of the state. This firm is probably the only one in the state that executes farm insurance policies without referring to the home offices of the company.

Mr. Guthrie had a number of years experience in the fire insurance business before coming to Alliance, and is considered an expert on getting up forms for policies. He is thoroughly familiar with life insurance as well. Mr. Gray is a deep student and has acquired a knowledge of the business that is invaluable to their patrons.

It is scarcely necessary to call attention to their big ad in this issue of The Herald, as our readers will not fail to notice it.

Death of High School Student.

Miss Mable Mills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse E. Mills, of the northern part of the county, has been attending the Alliance High School, making her home with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Adams. She was greatly loved and highly esteemed by her fellow students, but in the midst of her school work was taken a short time ago with erysipelas. Early last Monday morning her beautiful young life passed out to the great beyond.

She was born in western Iowa and was 16 years of age at the time of her death. Funeral services were held at the Adams residence Monday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Dr. Bogue, and on Tuesday the remains were taken to Sioux Rapids for interment, accompanied by her father, a brother and Mr. Adams.

We wish to give expression to heartfelt sympathy for the sorrowing friends and relatives.

THE HOTEL ALLIANCE

A CHANGE in management of this house opens the way to make mention of the fact that the usual overhauling and general clean-up has been "did," a force of skilled employes installed, the choicest of food stuffs at the Chef's command, he knows how to cook them, we know how to serve them, and if courteous treatment, prompt service and management that appreciates your patronage counts for anything, let's meet, and we will do the rest.

Our special Sunday dinners may appeal to you.

4th of July Celebration--Stockmen's Convention

Arrangements are well under way for the biggest celebration ever held in western Nebraska. A magnificent celebration of the nation's natal day will be followed by the stockmen's annual convention, July 5th, 6th and 7th. In connection with the stockmen's convention there will be a race meet that is already attracting attention. Several strings of fast horses are assured, some of which will afterwards make the Denver and Salt Lake City circuits.

Ample funds will be raised to make an unprecedented success of the whole affair. The following members of the Commercial Club were appointed as a committee on finance: Wm. James, M. Frankle, W. W. Norton, W. D. Rumer, C. A. Newberry, F. E. Holsten, Geo. Darling, Geo. Mollring, J. H. Vaughn, Joe McNamara, J. A. Berry, Chas. Brennan, J. C. McCorkle, Dick Waters, Jas. Keeler, Enoch Boyer, R. M. Hampton, W. O. Barnes.

The committee started out yesterday afternoon to raise at least $3,000 for expenses, not including what will be expended on the races. By night they had secured more than half that amount.

"THE ARRIVAL OF KITTY"

A Fine Attraction Billed for the Phelan Opera House, Wednesday Night, April 13.

The announcement that there is to be another high-class show at the Phelan opera house will be received with pleasure by the playgoing public. "The Arrival of Kitty" is a farce comedy in three acts where an Italian count and a prospective husband engaged through a matrimonial bureau figure largely. It is a play of laughable situations of genuine humor, free from any horse play or coarseness. There are six musical numbers, including "Experience." "Take me up with you, dearie," "Don't go near the water, daughter," and a number of other new eastern hits. The play will be presented here under the management of C. S. Williams, who has staged the comedy in splendid style and has equipped it with an excellent company of players. The opera house management has investigated the record of this company and can conscientiously recommend to all playgoers that it will be an evening's entertainment of one of the season's best offerings. Seats will be on sale Monday morning. Prices beneath the gallery $1; balance of the lower floor 75c, gallery 50c, and children 25c.

Death of Former Resident

At the age of forty-seven years, Mrs. Anna McCarthy died at Belle Fourche, S. D., last Sunday morning the cause of her death being heart disease. She formerly resided in this city where her husband died eighteen years ago, but for some years past she and her two daughters, Mabel and Dolly have lived in South Dakota.

The remains were brought to Alliance for interment by the side of her husband in the Catholic cemetery.

The funeral was delayed awaiting the arrival of a son, F. J. McCarthy who came today. The Herald wishes to offer condolence to the bereaved relatives and friends, particularly to the daughters and the son. It has been noted how devoted the daughters were to their mother and their grief at this time as well as that of their brother is greater than words can express.
